

Announce your business on email

Hey folks,

I'm so excited about something I wanted to share this with my family & friends.

I decided to start (fill in the blank - saving money for my wedding/for college/to take the kids to Disney World/to travel to Scotland/to buy our first home, whatever your DREAM is) – so I just began my own business with Mary Kay, Inc. to help me accomplish this and I'm pretty excited it!

It would mean the world to me to have your support with hitting my first big goal (don't worry it's easy). My MK Director has asked me to see how many people I can get to register on my website by Sunday night.

Just go to www.marykay.com/ENTER YOUR NAME HERE and click on the upper right-hand corner to register.

It won't take but a second & would mean a ton to me.

Thanks a bunch,
YOUR NAME

PS – also, my 2nd big challenge is to sell 25 items in 7 days – so if any of you happen to need any product while you're there I'll be happy to take 15% off just as a thank you for helping me with my big goal (just note on comment section at very end about the discount & I'll take off discount on my end) – YOU are the BEST!
